WHAT TO DO IN A DAY

Hike to Mt Donna Buang – 12km

For the experienced hiker, the walk from the town to Mt Donna Buang is great. Park at the base of Mary Range Road and walk down to the base of the falls. When you reach Donna Buang Road, avoid the track that leads to Mt Victoria, instead turn left onto Donna Buang Road to reach Tan Mal Tumbledown. Continue on the walking trails to the summit and return.

O’Shannassy Aqueduct Trail

There are many sections you can walk or ride along on the scenic Aqueduct Trail. Run off the flat trail with stunning views of Warburton and the valley at the car park at the top of Bee Rd, Millgrove. Cycle or walk the easy climb to Warburton Dam, getting off at Sunny Gully car parking or continue on to the lookout. There is a short stream along Millgrove Road before crossing over the Aqueduct Trail. For a longer round trip, you can drive through Warburton along the Warburton Swale Centre Rd and the second side. Return to Warburton Dam or the lookout over the Trail. Walk to Warburton along the track to Yuonga Rd and return. For the more adventurous cyclists, you can continue from Yuonga Rd through Beerburrum and turn left on the one way road.

Big Pats Walk into History – 10km

Park at Big Pats Recreation Area and walk 10km-long along Sunny Creek Rd. The walk through the forest and out to the summit of Mt Donna Buang, constructed in 1933 passing what is left of two bush mill sites. The track passes the top of the Eastern Snowy Mountains and the second side. Return to the car park here using the old road. Enjoy a picnic and visit the old well and tunnel 50m past the tunnel block. You can camp at Stanley Gap if you want to continue on to the Ada Tree Trail. Refer to the Card Guide.

The Lilydale to Warburton Rail Trail
